

Career Development Program for women from Marginalized /disadvantaged communities

Manusher Jonno Foundation is working for promoting human rights and good governance. Capacity development of human resource especially for the dis-advanced groups is one of the major strategies of MJF. “Career development program for women from marginalized communities” is an initiative of MJF to encourage women for building their career in different sectors. MJF has been conducting this program since 2010 and till date more than 100 women have been participated.

Who can apply?

- Women from marginalized communities (i.e. Indigenous, Disability, Dalit etc.)
- Minimum educational qualification is graduate (B.A/BSC/B.COM/BSS) from any discipline
- Spirit of volunteerism and high level aspiration of own career development as well as support others through providing development support and services.

Potential candidates can apply with writing a one page Expression of Interest (in Bangla/English) elaborating the rationale behind their application, what they would like to achieve from this program and how it will support own career development, contribute to the development of their community as well. Applicants are requested to send the application with attaching a copy of passport size photograph, detail CV, and copies of all academic certificates to Mr. Pablo Narudha, Training Coordination Officer, Capacity Development, Manusher Jonno Foundation, House #47, Road #35/A, Gulshan-2, Dhaka-1212 by January 15, 2017.

For any further information please contact e-mail: pablo@manusher.org, cell: 01751861040