

Programme on marginalised women for advancement

Manusher Jonno Foundation (MJF) is a national grants-making body, which provides funding and capacity building assistance to civil society organisations for promoting Human Rights and Good Governance in Bangladesh. Capacity development of human resources, especially of the dis-advantaged groups, is one of the mandates of MJF. "Programme on marginalised women for advancement [পরাঙ্গা]" is an initiative to encourage women for building their professional career. MJF has been conducting this program since 2010 and till date, more than 200 women have participated.

Call for application

MJF is announcing "Call for application" from interested participants for the seventh batch of "Programme on marginalised women for advancement [পরাঙ্গা]"

Who can apply?

- * Women from marginalised communities (ethnic minority, disability, dalit etc.)
- * Minimum educational qualification is graduate (B.A/BSC/B.COM/BSS) from any discipline
- * Spirit of volunteerism and high level aspiration of self-career development as well as of supporting others through providing development assistance and services.

Interested candidates should apply with one page "Expression of Interest" (in Bangla or in English) elaborating the rationale behind the application. Applicants are requested to send the application with attaching a copy of passport size photograph, detailed CV, and copies of all academic certificates by 6 June, 2018 to:

Mr. Pablo Narudha, Training Coordination Officer, (Email: pablo@manusher.org, cell: 01751861040)
Capacity Development, Manusher Jonno Foundation, House # 22, Road # 4, Block # F, Banani, Dhaka-1212.

www.manusherjonno.org

